

No place to hide

“The dirty and complex work of human interaction.”

No place to hide

- The nature of the physical experience of interconnectivity - from which ethical choices and meaningful conversations arise.
- The ways we hide from connection with each other (and our natural wisdom.)
- Practices that can assist in coming out of hiding.

No place to hide

Embodied connection with self

Enables

Embodied connection with another

Enables

Meaningful conversations and ethical realisations and choices...

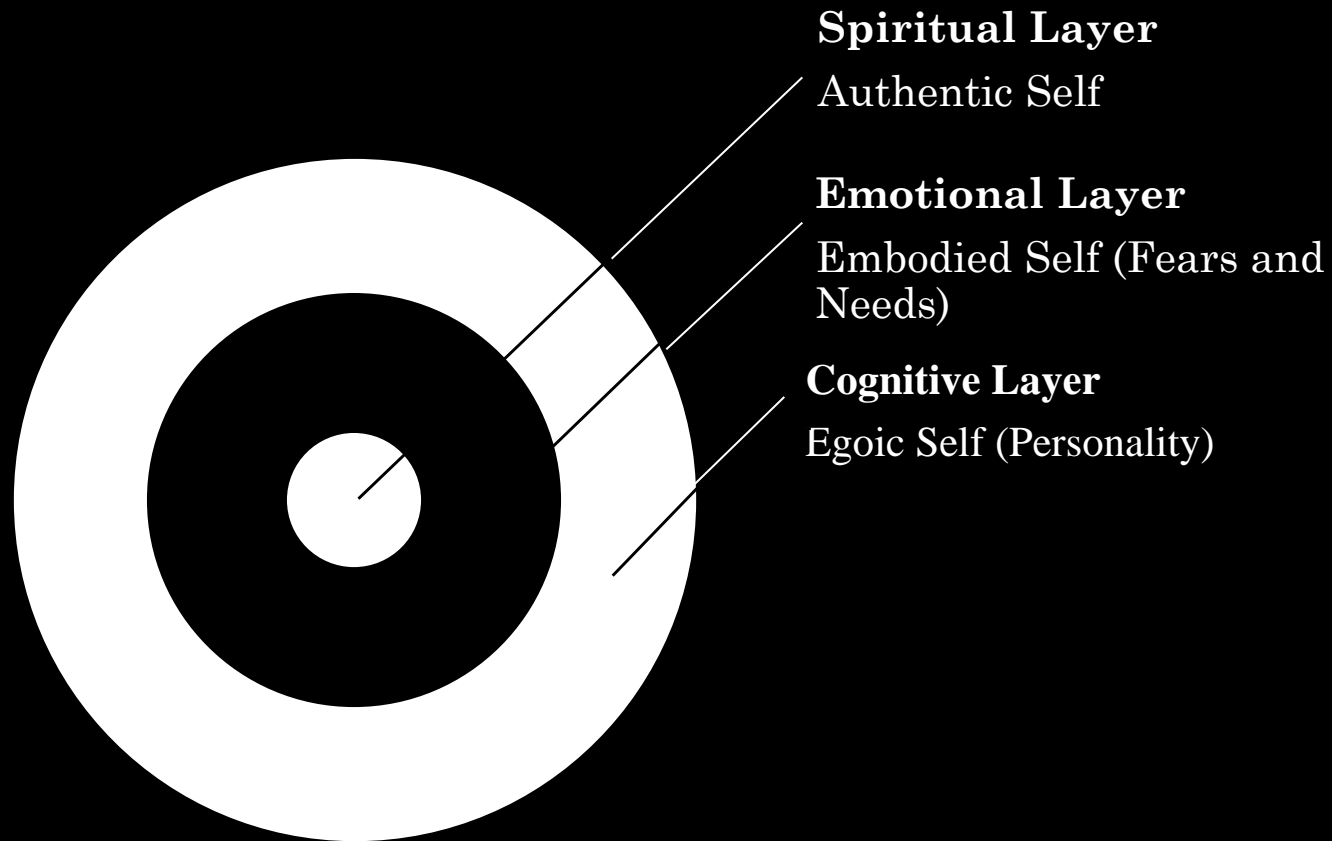

No place to hide

The fear of 'being seen'

No place to hide

'Tell me the ways you avoid being real?'

No place to hide

No place to hide

Ego devices

- Insufficiency (That we are not enough/good enough)
 - Lack
 - Addiction
 - Dissatisfaction
- Separation (That we won't be loved or liked)
 - Connection
- Insecurity (That we are not safe or secure)
 - Suspicion
 - Control and planning
 - Competition

No place to hide

Practices

- Trust
- Truth
- Open minded curiosity
- Compassion
- Humility

No place to hide

A world of embodied interactions - a world where we can...

Share our passion, ideas and talent

Show up...and challenge others to show up and be seen

Create a stimulating space to explore, engage and connect

Be brave

Let go of the old to make space for the new....

Be curious

Ignite and use our creative spirit

Be the change we want to see ..

Evolve and change with the emerging needs of the world...
